Finding the correct place to log in off campus

If you are using a journal off campus you may be taken to the journal home page and have to find the correct place to login. Sometimes there is an obvious login box but the institutional login which you need to use may be a small link. The following screenshots show what you will see for some of the major journal sites with an arrow showing the correct link.

You should always be directed to a Swansea login box like this:

![Swansea University Login]

Journals via Ingenta Connect

- Select the Shibboleth sign-in link

![Journals via Ingenta Connect]

- Choose Swansea University from the list of sites then click Go to Login. You should be taken to a Swansea University login box where you can use your usual computing username and Science Direct

- Click the login link at the top of the screen. Ignore the obvious login box and click Institution login or Swansea University if that is an option.

- Select UK Access Management Federation and click Go.
You will then need to select Swansea University from a list of institutions to be taken to the Swansea University login box.

Wiley Online Library

- Click the link at the top right of the screen saying Institutional login.
You will then see an Institution Name box. Type Swansea University then click the login button to be taken to the Swansea login box.

Ebsco Host journals

- Select the Shibboleth login link
• Select UK Higher Education as the region or group.

• Click on Swansea University from the list of institutions which should bring up the Swansea login box.

IEEE Journals

• Select the Athens / Shibboleth link.
• Select the letter S to find Swansea University. Click the university name and you should be taken to a university login box.

Emerald Journals
• Click Athens / Shibboleth login.
- Select UK Federation WAYF Service

- Enter Swansea University and click Continue to access the Swansea University login point.
- Click Sign up / Login then choose Institution / Athens login.

- Find Swansea University under the Find your institution via Shibboleth option. Click Login via Shibboleth to go to the Swansea login box.
Click the sign in link at the top right.
• Click Show the list of institutions under Sign in via your institution.
• Click on Swansea University to see the university login box.

Nature Journals

Click Login

Click login via your institution as below.

Search for Swansea and select Swansea University
You should then be taken to a standard Swansea login box where you just use your student number and usual password.

Contact scilib@swansea.ac.uk if you have problems accessing a journal off campus, telling us which journal and issue you are trying to get into and we will investigate for you.