Where are the maths and computer science books?

Maths and computer science books are shelved at QA on Level 2 East – one floor down from the entry level.

If you are looking for a particular book you will need to find its call number in the library catalogue as there are a large number of shelves.

Ask at the Information Desk on Level 3 if you need help.