To access Web of Knowledge / Science off campus:

Go to http://wok.mimas.ac.uk

Click the purple button to access Web of Science. You should see the screen below:

In the box under Institutional Users Sign In select UK Federation and click Go.

You should then see a box asking which organisation you would like to sign in with. Type Swansea University and click Search.
This should lead you to a standard Swansea login box where your university username and password will let you access Web of Science.
