NexisUK
Newspapers from around the world

NexisUK gives access to hundreds of newspapers and other news sources from many countries around the world. It contains the full text of many newspaper articles from the early 1990s onwards. A few newspapers are available from the 1970s and 1980s.

Starting
To access NexisUK, follow the links from iFind or from Library Guides:

iFind
Search in iFind for NexisUK. Note that this is one word, with no spaces. Click on the link to the resource.

Library Guides
Go to the News Library Guide at https://libguides.swansea.ac.uk/News and click on NexisUK. Or you can follow the link from your subject’s Library Guide.

Searching for News
Click on News on the Nexis home page:

You will then see the following screen:
You can search across all of the news content in NexisUK, by entering search terms into the red search box at the top of the screen.

However, you may find it easier to select a group of newspapers to search first. For example, if you would like to search UK news, click on Europe under the category By Region and then click on United Kingdom. Now you can search across the UK newspapers listed on the page, or you can limit your search to one, or several, papers by clicking on Select sources to search.

If you would like to find out the coverage of any news source, click on the i to the right of it.

Enter you search terms into the red search box at the top of the screen.

Combining terms and phrase searching

Terms can be combined with And, Or, And Not.

Typing Trump and Trudeau will find articles containing both the words Trump and Trudeau.
Typing coronavirus or COVID-19 will find articles containing either coronavirus or COVID-19.
Typing “South Wales” and not “New South Wales” will find articles about South Wales but will exclude articles about New South Wales.

To search for a phrase, enclose it in inverted commas e.g. “new labour”.

Truncation
Use the * symbol to truncate terms. The * stands for any number of letters. For instance, terroris* will look for terrorism, terrorist, terrorists, terrorisme, terroriste, terroristes etc
Advanced Search
Advanced Search allows you to make your search more focused by using different fields. You do not need to fill in all of the boxes.

The 4 search boxes at the top, under Terms, are just another way of connecting search terms:
- All of these terms is the same as using AND between each word.
- Any of these terms is the same as using OR between each word.
- This exact phrase is the same as searching for a phrase using quotation marks.

When you have entered term/s into these fields, click on Add to add them to your search.

Scroll down the page to see other fields e.g. Headline, Publication, Date, Language etc.

To search one newspaper – type the title into the Publication field.

Displaying Results
When a search is run, you get a list of results (10 a page) sorted by relevance. If you click on the arrow to the right of the Sort by box, you can sort them in order of publication date. Click on the blue text to see the text of an article.

Refining your results
When you have run your search, you can refine your result by using the Narrow by menu on the left. For example, you can use the timeline to narrow by date, or you can limit your results to a particular language under Publication Language.

Searching one newspaper
When you have run your search, click on Newspapers in the Narrow by panel on the left of the screen and click on one of the newspaper titles listed.

Saving, printing and emailing
You can print, e-mail, download or send to dropbox the list of results or the full text of individual articles. Just click on the relevant icon near the top of the screen:
If you wish to save, print or e-mail some but not all the results, click first on the boxes to the left of the articles you wish to select.

Keeping a record
You can keep a record of useful articles in your Folders. Simply click the checkbox to the left of the article and then click the Folders icon:

![Folders Icon]

Give the folder a name, if it is a new folder, and click Create. To retrieve results, click on Folders at the top left of the screen and the desired folder. Note: Saved articles only stay for a month.

Further features – annotating and highlighting
You may wish to highlight some text or add notes to particular articles. To do this, when you have the full text of an article open, just highlight a piece of text and the following window will appear:

![Highlight and Annotate Window]

Select Highlight or Annotate to add your notes.

Help
Click on Search tips above the search box on the Basic Search page to access online help. If you need further help, you can email artslib@swansea.ac.uk or ask at the Information Desk.
